

Nogin and Software Acquisition Group III Announce PIPE Financing

Transaction Includes $60 Million in Convertible Note Committed Financing Led by UBS and Tenor Capital

LAS VEGAS, Nevada and TUSTIN, California – April 20, 2022 – Nogin, Inc. (“Nogin” or the “Company”), a leading provider of Commerce-as-a-Service technology, and Software Acquisition Group Inc. III (Nasdaq: SWAG) (“SWAG III”), a special purpose acquisition company, announced today that the Company has obtained commitments for $60 million in convertible note financing (the “PIPE Financing”) for the public company led by funds managed by UBS Asset Management’s Hedge Fund Solutions business (“UBS”) and also including commitments from Tenor Capital Management and Jonathan Huberman, Chief Executive Officer of SWAG III.

This PIPE Financing is anticipated to fund concurrently with the closing of the proposed business combination of Nogin and SWAG III (the “Business Combination”), expected to take place in the second quarter of 2022, subject to stockholder approval. Additional details on the Business Combination can be found in the original announcement from February 14, 2022, linked here.

“Nogin’s platform delivers a complex eCommerce ecosystem traditionally afforded to only the biggest, most sophisticated retailers in a simple, easy-to-use platform for merchants,” said Nogin CEO and Co-Founder Jan Nugent. “This PIPE commitment is a further endorsement of our growth thesis, and as brands and merchants look for an edge in the increasingly competitive online retail landscape, Nogin’s entrance into the public markets could not be timelier. We expect that the additional funding from the PIPE agreements will provide ample capital to fuel our go-forward strategy in the coming quarters.”

“For brands working to propel their online businesses from the leading edge of web commerce, Nogin is a clear frontrunner in providing Commerce-as-a-Service solutions,” said SWAG III CEO Jonathan Huberman. “As Nogin’s introduction to the public markets approaches, our conviction in the Company’s growth potential has never been stronger, and I’m pleased to participate in this PIPE Financing. Nogin is in a prime position to address the ever-expanding opportunity in the eCommerce market, and we look forward to our continued partnership with Jan and the rest of the talented management team as we realize our collective goals.”

Pursuant to the PIPE Financing, SWAG III will issue $60 million aggregate principal amount of 7.00% Convertible Senior Notes due in 2026 (the “Notes”), which may be increased by an additional $10 million pursuant to an “accordion feature” from UBS. Including this new PIPE Financing, the Company expects to receive more than $280 million in proceeds in connection with the closing of the Business Combination, assuming exercise of the accordion feature by UBS and no redemptions by SWAG III’s public stockholders and before the payment of certain expenses.

The additional PIPE Financing creates a strong roster of investors supporting the closing of the Business Combination and is expected to accelerate Nogin’s ability to deliver the technology, research and development, and optimization needed for merchants to keep pace with big retail.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements included in this communication are not historical facts but are forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements generally relate to future events or SWAG III’s or the Company’s future financial or operating performance. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may”, “should”, “would”, “seem”, “expect”, “intend”, “will”, “estimate”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “future”, “predict”, “potential” or “continue”, or the negatives of these terms or variations of them or similar terminology, but the absence of these words does not mean that a statement is not forward looking. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

These forward-looking statements are based upon estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by SWAG III and its management, and the Company and its management, as the case may be, are inherently uncertain. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on by any investor as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and may differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of SWAG III. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of negotiations and any subsequent definitive agreements with respect to the Business Combination; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against SWAG III, the combined company or others following the announcement of the Business Combination and any definitive agreements with respect thereto; (3) the inability to complete the Business Combination due to the failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of SWAG III, to obtain financing to complete the Business Combination or to satisfy other conditions to closing; (4) changes to the proposed structure of the Business Combination that may be required or appropriate as a result of applicable laws or regulations or as a condition to obtaining regulatory approval of the Business Combination; (5) the risk that SWAG III, the Company and certain other parties to the Business Combination and related transactions (collectively, the “Transactions”) may amend one or more agreements applicable to the Transactions prior to the closing of the Transactions, and/or that the Transactions may not be completed in a timely manner, in the amount described herein or at all; (6) the ability to meet stock exchange listing standards following the consummation of the Business Combination; (7) the risk that the Business Combination disrupts current plans and operations of the Company as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Business Combination; (8) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Business Combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain its management and key employees; (9) costs related to the Business Combination; (10) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (11) the possibility that the Company or the combined company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; (12) inaccuracies for any reason in the estimates of expenses and profitability and projected financial information for the Company; and (13) other risks and uncertainties set forth in the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements” in SWAG III’s (i) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021, (ii) proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on February 14, 2022 and (iii) other documents filed by SWAG III from time to time with the SEC.

Nothing in this communication should be regarded as a representation by any person that the forward-looking statements set forth herein will be achieved or that any of the contemplated results of such forward-looking statements will be achieved. You should not place undue reliance on forward looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. Neither SWAG III nor the Company undertakes any duty to update these forward-looking statements.
